SPRINGFIELD, ILL., JAN. 23.

The third week of the forty-eighth general assembly was brought to a close today with the speakership deadlock in the house unbroken.

For a time this morning it looked as if John M. Rapp, of Fairfield, might be chosen. Starting with 43 votes on the fifty-first roll call, he climbed steadily toward the required constitutional majority on five successive ballots, reaching a total of 69 votes on the fifty-fifth roll call.

This was really within five votes of the speakership, for the three socialist members present and voting had announced a readiness to add their votes whenever Rapp produced the balance. But with all the pressure that could be brought to bear, not another vote could be pried loose for Rapp. Holding his own for one ballot, the Wayne county man began to lose strength. In six more ballots he had fallen back to 62 votes where the session rested and the members gave up the struggle until next Tuesday afternoon.

Friends of candidate Rapp welcomed the adjournment. It was apparent that their candidate could recuperate no more strength at present and they desired to stop the proceedings before he was any further weakened. Think Dunne Should Take Charge.

Many members left the city tonight, declaring it is up to Governor-elect Dunne to take personal charge of the situation and endeavor to break the deadlock. Several of Rapp's supporters expect to urge such action upon the governor-elect between now and Tuesday. They will point to the strength shown by their candidate and urge upon the governor-elect the necessity for his interference.

The 59 votes obtained by Rapp today came from 46 Democrats and 23 Progressives. The 46 Democrats represented the strength of Rapp with a Hubbard and Karch contingent so far as the last two named could deliver.

Members of the McLaughlin faction of Democrats "stood around" the boom for Hoffman of Quincy, started yesterday, ended this morning. In pre-session caucus the Progressives decided they would not support him and their action put him out of the race. Thirteen roll calls were had today beginning with the fifth and ending with the sixty-second, the number being the largest of any single day of the session.

Attorney General Stead's opinion as to whether the senate may proceed with business without waiting for the use to organize is expected to be coming tomorrow.

MEXICAN REBELS OPEN FIRE ON UNITED STATES BORDER TROOPS

Troops Reported That None of That Concerned the Volley and Soldiers Were of the American Injured.

El Paso, Texas, Jan. 23.—Telephone reports late today state that United States troops of the first and tenth cavalry patrolling the thirteenth federal territory, near the border, were fired upon by rebels in the state of Chihuahua today resulting in a fight with the American ranchmen, who drove the raiders over the line, killing one of them.

It was said that the troop commander did not return the rebels' volley, and that none of the American soldiers was injured. The firing on the United States troops occurred directly opposite Guadalupe, where 400 rebels were located. The American ranches were raided some miles to the west. Troop B, of the thirteenth cavalry has been rushed to the scene.

ADD BOTH SIDES APPROVE
Three Thousand Men Idle.

Rochester, N. Y., Jan. 23.—While several thousand operatives in the clothing industry went on strike today, formal demands had not been presented to the manufacturers to-night. Three thousand men in the big shops are idle.

IS HANGED BY MOB.
Fullbright, Texas, Jan. 23.—Dick Stanley, a 16 year old negro boy, it was charged, attempted to assault a four year old white child, today was hanged by a mob. Sheriff McGinnis was on his way to jail with the negro when he was overpowered.

NEW TURK CABINET MAY MEAN MORE WAR

Kiamil Pasha Resigns—
Shefket Pasha Appointed
Grand Vizier

YOUNG TURKS IN POWER

Change Comes as Unexpected
Blow to Peace Settlement—
Allies Angered by Delay

NONE CAN PREDICT OUTCOME

LONDON, JAN. 23.—To the ambassadors of the powers who were congratulating themselves that the concert of Europe virtually had settled the near eastern war; to the delegates of the allied Balkan states, and to all London, except the Turkish plenipotentiaries, the news of the resignation of Kiamil Pasha and the appointment of Mahomud Shefket Pasha to the grand vizierate, came as a bolt from the blue.

Whether this means war to a finish, with the "Young Turks" in the saddle, or merely is another exhibition of the resources of Turkish diplomacy, none can say, nor can any one predict whether the powers will attempt to coerce Turkey into making peace or stand as spectators while events take their course.

"Young Turk" Cabinet.
The Turkish delegates have cherished the conviction that the abandonment of Adrianople by the ministry would bring a "Young Turk" cabinet into power. The fact that Shefket Pasha has been appointed grand vizier while Talat Bey, who is a prominent member of the Young Turk committee and deputy for Adrianople, has been made a minister of the interior, is significant. The Young Turks have labored valiantly for some time to regain power, their activity among army officers has been great and prominent soldiers, who recently returned from Tripoli and joined the Tehattala army, are largely responsible for the revolution of feeling.

May Lead the Military Revolt.
Whether the advent of the Young Turk ministry means that the Ottomans will make a last fight with their backs to the wall, depends upon the amount of support the Young Turks are able to command in the army. Should there be a division of opinion, as diplomats acquainted with Turkey predict, a military revolt against the cabinet is in no way improbable.

The delegates of the allies received the news with expressions of anger and sarcasm. Some offered the opinion the Constantinople coup was pre-arranged—that Shefket Pasha did not participate in the grand council because he knew he would succeed Kiamil Pasha. They chafed more angrily under each successive delay which the Turkish tactics have raised against the conclusion of peace, because it is a constant reminder of the enormous burden in keeping a majority of the men of their nations under arms, withdrawn from their industrial pursuits, a condition which will place their countries more and more as they say, "in the power of the money lenders of European houses."

That is the condition they dread beyond all others, as tending to undermine the real independence of their kingdoms. They declare that their alliance is as strongly knit as at the beginning of the war and that they are ready to resume hostilities at a moment's notice and carry on the campaign with greater vigor and with different and larger aims than the ambitions with which they began it.

SAY MARRIAGE LAWS ARE ONLY CURE FOR THE DIVORCE EVILS

Members of Illinois Commission
Urge Better Marriage Legislation
as Remedy.

Chicago, Jan. 23.—"Good marriage laws are the cure for the divorce evil. That briefly stated was the decision reached today by the members of the Illinois commission on uniform marriage and divorce laws. The commission voted its approval of a report on the subject drawn up by Judge Hugo Farn and Marcus A. Kavanaugh and Rev. W. O. Walters.

Besides urging better marriage laws, the report recommended that the legislation be made federal in order that the whole root of the evil might be struck at one time.

It was pointed out that in the last fifty years divorce has increased three and one-third times as fast as the population. Between 1877 and 1906, a total of 120,000 divorces were granted in Illinois, this state holding the western list.

LEAVES BRUNSWICK.
Brunswick, Ga., Jan. 23.—William Rockefeller, whose testimony is desired by the committee of the house of representatives investigating the so-called money trust, is reported to have left this afternoon. Nothing definite could be learned as to his destination.

Mr. Rockefeller arrived on Jekyll Island yesterday from Palm Beach, where he had been for several days.

COREY AGAIN WITNESS IN GOVERNMENT SUIT

GIVES FURTHER TESTIMONY IN SUP-PORT OF GOVERNMENT CHARGES

Affirms That "Understandings" to Maintain Prices Were Reached at the Famous "Gary Dinners"—Describes International Armour Plate Pool.

NEW YORK, JAN. 23.—William Ellis Corey, former president of the United States Steel corporation again a witness to day in the hearings of the government suit to dissolve the corporation under the Sherman anti-trust law, gave further testimony in support of the government charges that the corporation is a monopolistic combination. He testified that "understandings" to maintain prices were reached at the famous "Gary Dinners" given in New York by E. H. Gary, chairman of the corporation at which a large majority of the steel manufacturers of the country were represented.

He also gave testimony, the first added from any witness in the suit, as to the existence of an international armor plate pool, in which the United States Steel corporation had participated. He confirmed the existence of a "plate and structural pool" and asserted that Mr. Gary had had knowledge of it. He said that he himself had given orders for the closing down of blast furnaces of the corporation for the purpose of maintaining the price of pig-iron. He said steel rails sold lower to foreign consumers than to domestic, and he furnished testimony intended to prove that the Tennessee Coal & Iron company, was a competitor of the steel corporation in the rail market prior to its acquisition by the corporation.

Mr. Corey who resigned as president of the corporation in 1910, made it evident that he had clashed with Judge Gary and the members of the finance committee in matters of policy. He said he had never favored the lease of the Hill ore lands by the corporation in 1907, which was abrogated by the corporation almost coincidentally with the filing of the present suit.

His testimony in regard to the Gary dinners was in direct contradiction to what the steel corporation said in its answer to the government's complaint.

They denied that at "any of said meetings" or at any other time and place, there was any agreement or understanding that prices should be maintained.

Mr. Gary in his testimony before the Stanley steel investigating committee said he had put a stop to the pools as soon as he learned of their existence. He has not testified in this suit.

Mr. Corey will resume the stand for cross examination tomorrow.

ILLINOIS STATE DAIRYMEN HOLD ANNUAL ELECTION

J. P. Masson of Elgin is Elected President—Oppose Burleson of Texas as Secretary of Agriculture.

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 23.—At the annual election of the Illinois State Dairymen's association, held in this city today, the following officers were elected:

President—J. P. Masson, Elgin.
Vice-president—F. G. Austin, Effingham.
Board of directors—J. P. Masson, Elgin; E. Sudendorf, Clinton; John Lynch, Olney; Charles Gilkerson, Marengo; F. G. Austin, Effingham; Joseph Newman, Elgin.

The officers of secretary and treasurer are to be filled by vote of the directors.

Charles Foss of Cedarville, is the present treasurer and George Caven of Chicago the present secretary.

Resolutions were adopted opposing the appointment of Hon. A. E. Burleson, of Texas, as secretary of agriculture.

OLD SETTLER DROPS DEAD.

Danville, Ill., Jan. 23.—George W. Wolfe, aged 81, who dropped dead on the street at Catlin, this county today, was the last survivor of the old settlers who operated the salt works west of Danville before the site of this city was chosen.

WILL FORM COUNTY SUPERINTENDENTS' LEAGUE

Bloomington, Ill., Jan. 23.—County superintendents of the schools of Illinois, who are dissatisfied with the methods of the state organization, met here today to take steps to form the county superintendents' league.

E. C. Pruitt, of Sangamon county was chosen president; J. L. Costley, of DeWitt, vice president and Mrs. Eva Batterson, of Menard county, secretary.

The legislative committee is composed of B. C. Moore, of McLean county; D. P. Hollis, of Pike county and M. M. Cook, of Fulton county.

COMPLETE 10,000 MILE AUTOMOBILE JOURNEY.

New York, Jan. 23.—Forty thousand miles by automobile, a trip through thirty three countries, and around the globe, ended here today when Mrs. William A. Hall and her son Melvin steered the car into its Broadway garage. Their trip is said to be the first of the kind accomplished by amateur drivers. They wore out 117 tires and burned up 5,000 gallons of gasoline. They left here June 22, 1912.

Disagreed to senate amendments to legislative and judicial appropriation bill and asked for a conference. Resumed consideration of rivers and harbors appropriation bill.

Adjourned at 6:40 p. m. until 11 a. m., Friday.

WASHINGTON, JAN. 23.—Attack of mill interests on the proposed Democratic revision of the tariffs on textile manufactures has resulted so far in a virtual conclusion of the ways and means committee majority to strike a lower rate readjustment than planned in the previous Democratic cotton revision bills. There will be substantial reductions from the tentative cotton schedule basis running down as low as five per cent on the cheaper goods that the working classes depend upon.

The compromise revision schedule proposed yesterday by Lewis W. Parker of Greenville, S. C., former head of the American Cotton Manufacturers association assumed more importance to day as a basis for Democratic general reduction plans. It was frequent referred to during the examination of witnesses and it will have a considerable bearing in the committee's figuring on the low rates.

Will Discuss "Schedule J"

There also will be some reductions in schedule J in part of the Payne Aldrich law that deals with flax, hemp and jute and their manufactures. The Democratic leaders, however, realize that this schedule is more competitive than most of the others. A large proportion of this schedule which embraces the big lace and linen industries, covers articles that are deemed luxuries with consequent high tariff warranted from the Democratic program viewpoint. The schedule will be taken up tomorrow.

The committee concluded taking testimony to day on the cotton schedule. Most of the witnesses wanted retention of the rates in the present tariff law, particularly on Jacquard-figured cotton goods, upholstery generally, on print cotton goods and on cotton handkerchiefs. Other witnesses while preferring the present policy were disposed to be conciliatory, in view of the determination of the Democratic leaders to reduce the tariff along revenue lines, particularly on the more common articles of use among the poor classes of the people.

House Sounds Time Quibbling.

It took the house exactly three and a half hours to day to approve its journal yesterday. The friends of the Lincoln Memorial project forced the clerk to read the journal in full for the first time in many years. Minority Leader Mann conducted the filibuster, he said, "to teach the other side that the minority is not to be trifled with."

In maze of roll calls, parliamentary inquiries and Democratic attempts to start the day's business, the house consumed half a day's session while the legislation waited.

Representative Mann finally abandoned his fight, after securing a parliamentary advantage which probably will result in the consideration of

BIG BUSINESS DONE IN STOLEN STAMPS

POST OFFICE INSPECTORS DISCLOSE
ILLEGAL TRAFFICKING IN STAMPS

Through Confessions From Brokers
It Was Learned That Stolen
Stamps Were Purchased and Resold at Prices Far Below Their Face Value.

Washington, Jan. 23.—Illegal trafficking in stolen postage stamps, aggregating several millions of dollars annually, has just been disclosed by postoffice inspectors, who reported today that their investigations involved stamp brokers and confidential employees of large business concerns throughout the United States. Through confessions secured from some of the brokers whose operations were investigated it was learned that stamps of all classes and denominations stolen by burglars from postoffices, and embezzled by employees from great business houses and manufacturing establishments, were purchased and re-sold by the brokers at prices far below their face value. The postal laws makes it a crime to sell any stamp issued by the government for less than its face value. Investigations disclosed the fact that the brokers knew the stamps were stolen when purchased by them. Inquiries showed that brokers in some instances entered into a conspiracy with employees of business houses to buy at prices agreed upon, all stamps the clerks could steal from their employers.

Operations have been extensive it is said in New York where several arrests have been made. Boston, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Pittsburgh, Chicago, Indianapolis, St. Louis, Minneapolis, Cincinnati, New Orleans, Kansas City, Denver, San Francisco, Seattle, Portland, Ore., and other cities.

One stamp broker in New York city who sells from $300 to $1,000 worth of stamps a day to merchants, it is alleged, has been purchasing some of his supply from an employee of the New York state government at Albany. The employee confessed to postoffice inspectors that he permitted to the stamp broker, from $25 to $50 a week in stamps stolen from the state.

An official of a foreign alliance association with headquarters at Chicago confessed that for a long time he had been stealing stamps from the association and hypothecating them.

An employee of a large automobile concern at Indianapolis admitted that he had been filching stamps from his employers and disposing of them to brokers who knew that they were stolen.

SECURE TELEGRAMS AGAINST FORMER VENEZUELAN PRESIDENT

Washington Officials Claim Copies of Telegrams Show That Castro
Ordered the Killing of His Political Enemy in 1907.

New York, Jan. 23.—Copies of telegrams in the possession of the state department at Washington are believed by the special board of inquiry, which passed upon the question of admitting Cipriano Castro to this country to show conclusively that Castro ordered the killing of Paredes, a revolutionary war general in Venezuela in 1907, according to developments today at Ellis island, where Castro is being detained pending an appeal of the special board's decision to exclude the former Venezuelan president.

Immigration officials with copies of these telegrams tried to read them to Castro in his room today but he would not listen. He banged the door shut, locked it and sent for Harold A. Content of his counsel. The lawyer later gave out a statement declaring that the telegrams are not authentic, but that even if it was true that Castro ordered his enemy's death, he was guilty only of a political offense.

EIGHT DIE AND MANY ARE INJURED WHEN BUILDING COLLAPSES

Three Story Structure Falls and

From the best information obtainable tonight upwards of fifty persons were in the store when the building collapsed. It is likely exploration of the ruins will add to the number of known dead. Clearing away the smoldering debris is impeded by lack of mechanical facilities.

WILLARD-DAILY BOAT CANCELLED

Chicago, Jan. 23.—The bout between Jess Willard and Dan Daly, scheduled for next Saturday night in Philadelphia, was cancelled today on account of Willard's breaking a bone in his right hand while boxing Frank Bauer of Port Wayne last night. It will be at least a month before Willard can fight again.

SNODGRASS SIGNS NEW YORK CONTRACT

Los Angeles, Jan. 23.—Fred Snodgrass, center-fielder of the New York Nationals, whose muf of a fly ball in the deciding game of the world's series last fall was a factor in losing the title for his team, has again signed a contract to play with Manager McGraw. Snodgrass says his contract gives him a substantial increase over last year's salary.

KNOX'S REPLY TO BRITISH PROTEST

Assures Britishers Foreign Fields Will Not be Injured by Canal Law

NO INCREASED TOLLS

No High Tolls Will be Levied to Balance the Remission to American Ships

TWO POINTS OF CONTENTION

WASHINGTON, JAN. 23.—Secretary Knox's reply to the British protest against the exemption of American coastwise shipping from Panama canal tolls assures the British government that domestic coastwise trade will not be permitted to extend operation into foreign competitive fields, and that increased tolls will not be laid on foreign shipping to balance the remission to American ships. If Great Britain is not satisfied on these points America proposed a special commission of adjustment.

The communication is devoted to the purpose of reducing to the smallest point and number the issues upon which the two governments failed to agree and as to these—only two—it is contended that they are entirely susceptible of adjustment by diplomatic means, and without recourse to arbitration. If this course should not prove acceptable to the British government it is suggested that the whole controversy be referred to a special committee of inquiry, provision for which is made in the unratified Knox-Bryce general arbitration treaty. That convention was approved by the senate with an amendment which curtailed the power of the special commission of inquiry to mere investigation and report and refused to permit the commission to bind either country to a course of arbitration in its findings. Because of this amendment, President Taft has so far declined to consummate the treaty by exchanging ratifications with the British government. To meet the needs of this present issue Secretary Knox now offers to give life to the treaty by an immediate exchange of ratifications, which would insure the existence of a general arbitration treaty between America and Great Britain after the lapse of the existing Hay-Pauncefote treaty June 4th, next. As an alternative the secretary is willing that a commission be created for the special purpose of ascertaining the facts in regard to the effect upon British shipping of the Panama canal tolls act and the president's proclamation fixing the tolls.

Much of the secretary's argument rests upon his contention that Sir Edward Grey's protest being made in advance of the issue of the president's proclamation fixing the tolls is entirely inapplicable to the controversy in its present state, and that, as a matter of fact, the British contention rests upon apprehension of things that may happen in the future to the injury of British shipping which, in all probability never will occur.

LANDIS DECLINES TO TRY KINSMAN.

Chicago, Jan. 23.—Judge K. M. Landis of the United States district court was called on here today to try one of his own relatives. He refused to hear the case. Members of a wholesale drygoods firm, found guilty some time ago in Judge Carpenter's federal court for violating the internal revenue laws, appeared before Judge Landis for a new trial. John Stevenson, a connection by marriage of Judge Landis, one of the firm, appeared as one of the defendants.

"I've got enough to do without trying my own kinsmen," Judge Landis said in declining to hold the trial.

PROGRAM FOR GRAIN DEALERS

FURTHER ARRANGEMENTS FOR STATE GATHERING HERE.

Committee From Business Men's Association Will Assist in the Work Local Musicians to Appear on the Program—Session to be Held in Opera House.

An important meeting of the program committee of the Illinois Farmers and Grain Dealers Association was held at the Pacific hotel yesterday, relative to the approaching state convention which will be held in Jacksonville Feb. 19, 20, 21. A deal was closed with the Opera House yesterday whereby the sessions will take place there. There are several prominent men who have been asked to speak at the state convention, who have not given their answer as yet and the program will be held until it is known for sure who will come.

The members of the program committee here yesterday included Fred Walbaum of Ashland, president; J. A. McGree of Mason City, secretary; J. D. Abbott, treasurer and J. U. Surface with A. C. Rice and Thomas Cain as the local representatives.

The committee appointed by the Business Men's association to assist in the world of entertaining and looking after the convention is composed of Frank Byrns, chairman, Mayor George W. Davis, President Joseph R. Harker and Commissioner William Newman. These men were also in conference yesterday with the officers of the Grain Dealers' Association.

One of the parts of the program arranged yesterday was the music. Jeffries' band will play on the opening day and there will be music by the Illinois college of Music at the opening of the convention and a concert will be given on first evening. On Thursday the faculty of the Conservatory of Music will give the music of the day. On the third day it is expected a male quartet will be heard. During the convention it will be arranged for all the guests to visit the various institutions and nothing will be overlooked to make the convention one of the most successful in its history.

COACH HARMON ANNOUNCES BASKETBALL LINE UP

Illinois College Will Play Fast Wesleyan Team Tonight.

One of the fastest games of basketball will be witnessed in the city tonight when the strong team from Wesleyan university lines up against Illinois college. Wesleyan played the fast team of Millikin university Thursday night and defeated them by a close score of 25 to 22. Coach Harmon has his men in the pink of condition and they realize the gain they will have to trot to beat the Methodists.

The line-up follows:
Wesleyan—Young and Ewings, forwards; Holmes and Hart, center; Calhoun, Elliott and Hinshaw (Capt.), guards.
Jacksonville—Jaccard, Gary and Hunziker, forwards; Tandy, center; Johnson, Stewart, Furr and Atchison, guards.
Referee—Brown of Springfield (Millikin).

STATES ARRANGE TO TAKE PART IN INAUGURAL PARADE

Ten States Have Already Announced Their Intentions of Sending Their National Guards.

Washington, Jan. 23.—Ten states already have notified Major General Wood, grand marshal of the inauguration parade, of their intention to participate in the inaugural ceremonies. The states thus far heard from which propose to send their national guards are the following: Maine, Rhode Island, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, North and South Carolina, Missouri and Georgia.

These states will not take part: Utah, Kentucky, Idaho, Washington, Arizona, Iowa, Kansas, Louisiana, Nebraska, South Dakota, Vermont, Wisconsin, Wyoming, Colorado, New Mexico, Oregon and Montana.

President-elect Wilson's Virginia nativity will be recognized in the plans for the court of honor, in front of the white house. The stand from which he will review the parade, after he has taken the oath of office, will bear presentation of the portico of Monticello, Thomas Jefferson's home, while the public reviewing stand on the opposite side of Pennsylvania avenue will embody a reproduction of the porch at Mount Vernon, the decorations being Virginia pine trees.

OPPOSES WATER POWER BILL.
Senator Francis Will Ask Iowa Legislature to go on Record Against Measure
Des Moines, Ia., Jan. 23.—Senator Francis will ask the Iowa legislature tomorrow to go on record as opposed to the grant by congress of fourteen power sites along the Des Moines river to the Des Moines river power company. A bill to do this is before congress, being introduced in December.

GAVE SUCCESSFUL ENTERTAINMENT

Members of Ebenezer Epworth League Please Audience With Musical.

Thursday evening at Ebenezer church the Epworth league of that organization gave a very pleasing entertainment, which in spite of the bad roads, was attended by a large crowd. The entertainment was entitled: "The New Minister", and the different characters were very capably taken by the young people of the league. The sum $27.50 was realized which will be used to purchase a piano for the church.

The play was under the management of Miss Grace Patterson, president of the league, and she was assisted by the cabinet of the organization. The young people rehearsed the play themselves, with the exception of the last three, which were directed by Miss Stella Shu. They will repeat the play three or four times at different places and the management is already making arrangements for its appearance.

The following is the cast of characters:
Rev. Homer Alexander Brown, the New Minister—Floyd Williamson.
Professor Topnote, leader of the Choir—Will Hadden.

JUST PASSED PERIOD OF LIGHTEST MONEY SINCE 1907

Chicago Bankers in Speech Tells How How Close We Had Come To a Panic.

New York, Jan. 23.—"We have just passed through sixty days of the tightest money we have had since 1907, and if anything had blown up, if any thing had happened to frighten the people, we would have had another panic," David R. Forgan, president of the First National Bank of Chicago, said at the dinner of the New York Credit Men's association tonight. Mr. Forgan, who was talking on "how to avoid another panic" added:

"In the last sixty days there has been hardly a bank that has held a lawful reserve and the controller of the currency has wisely said nothing about it for he is a broad-minded, sensible man.
"A central bank, such as we have looked for a century, would forever quiet the fears of the people for it would be backed by the government."

LAD IS ELECTROCUTED.

John Gilbert of Springfield on Way To School—Touched Live Wire and 2300 Volts of Electricity Passed Through Body.

Springfield, Jan. 23.—Hasty use of a pulmotor this morning was unsuccessful in reviving Earl Gilbert, aged 8 years, son of John Gilbert, 1019 North Twelfth street, who was shocked to death by a live utility wire, in North Eleventh street, between Miller and Carpenter streets. The boy was on his way to school about 9 o'clock and it is supposed he picked up the wire, which was lying across the sidewalk. A current of 2,300 volts passed through his body and threw him into the street. When found the lad was stretched on his back, clutching the death dealing wire in both his small hands.

It is thought that the child had lain in the street for about twenty minutes when he was found by Dan Refine, a passerby. Refine called the police station. An officer and Bert Hall, city electrician, were hurried to the scene. Hall climbed a pole and cut the wire, and Dr. Rogers, who had been summoned, worked for some time with a pulmotor in an effort to bring back life, but without success.

SENATE DEADLOCK BROKEN.

Charleston, W. V., Jan. 23.—The deadlock between Republicans and Democrats in the state senate was broken tonight when Samuel V. Woods, a Democrat was elected president of the upper house. The senate has been deadlocked since January 2nd and Woods was chosen on the 110 ballot, the Republicans voting solidly for him.
The Republicans control the legislature on joint ballot by twenty votes and a United States senator is to be chosen to succeed Clarence W. Watson.

ROBERTS' FOR COFFEE

COFFEE WITH CUP QUALITY

Absolutely the same blends and the same high quality as when we started in business a little over a year ago. From the first day we opened our store we began talking

WILL PLAY CHANDLERVILLE
NEXT SATURDAY NIGHT

Jacksonville High School Basketball Team Will Line up Against Strong Quintet From Cass County.

Basketball fans are to witness another fast game Saturday night, when J. H. Munn, the strong team from Chandlerville, Coach Buland's men are going good now, and the Cass county lads will have to be up on their toes if they carry off the honors.

Several days ago Chandlerville defeated Routt High school by a score of 42 to 6 and last night Jacksonville High defeated Routt by a score of 23 to 6. Chandlerville has always boasted a fast aggregation and the local players are leaving no stone unturned to put up a fine exhibition.

The game will not be called until 9 o'clock so that some of the business men can be in attendance.

THE EMPORIUM.

MR. SNERLY BUYS STOCK
FROM PARTNERS

The Decatur papers announce that L. W. Snerly until a few months since a Jacksonville business man is now the sole proprietor of the G. A. Stadler & Sons grocery business there. In October Mr. Snerly bought a half interest in the business and at that time made a contract, giving him the right to buy the other half at some future date if he so desired.

He decided to take advantage of his option and bought the remainder of the stock of the company. The price is said to have been $12,000.

Mr. Stadler and members of his family will spend the winter in California and next spring expect to return to Decatur and embark in some other line of business.

The Review in speaking of the business change said:

"L. W. Snerly is an experienced man in the grocery line, having run a store in Jacksonville for several years. He disposed of his interests in that town and came to Decatur. He has a wife and they live in the 200 block on West Prairie avenue. After several months' experience here he has made up his mind that Decatur is a good business town."

See the fast basketball game tonight at 8 P. M. col. vs. Wesleyan.

NEW HONOR FOR FAMOUS INVENTOR.

New York, Jan. 23.—Thomas A. Edison, the famous inventor, was today formally presented with the Rathenau medal by the American Museum of Safety. The medal is a replica of the original, which was presented by the emperor of Germany to Dr. Emil Rathenau.

The award of honor to Mr. Edison was made in recognition of his invention of a storage battery device which reduces danger to life and health of workers employed in mines, tunnels, submarine boats, factories and other places where explosive gases generate.

HEARING IS COMPLETED.

Chicago, Jan. 23.—The hearing in the Iowa rate case was completed today and an adjournment taken. Several witnesses testified in support of the complaint of the Iowa railroad commissioners that existing rates discriminate against every point in the United States. United States interstate commerce commissioner Prouty could not approximate the time when a decision would be reached.

JOHN C. ANDRAS WILL INSPECT PANAMA CANAL.

Well Known Resident of Manchester to Accompany Large Party From St. Louis.

John C. Andras of Manchester and his granddaughter, Miss Catherine Weis, will be members of a large party of tourists to leave St. Louis Monday, Feb. 3, for a trip to the Panama canal. The party will include eighty-two persons who go as members or guests of the Business Men's league of St. Louis. They will go by special train to New Orleans and later will take the steamer Carago.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Davis of Centralia and several people from Alton and East St. Louis will be among the tourists who expect to be absent about nineteen days.

Two days will be passed at Limon, Costa Rica. It is planned many members of the party will travel inland 100 miles to the capital, San Jose, and return the next morning to re-embark for Colon. Three days will be passed in Panama at the Tivoli hotel, a government hostelry. Pecos del Toro, where is to be found the largest banana plantation in the world, also will be visited.

Mr. Andras has seen a great deal of the world in recent years as he has traveled extensively. Travel to him too is more than recreation and he always returns weighted down with a vast amount of useful and interesting information. He is now past the age when the average man surrenders somewhat to the weaknesses of advancing years, but he still seems to be strong and robust.

A New Blend of Coffee Our Own Mix

I have handled and sold coffee now for years. Have tried all blends, and kinds, and at last I have discovered a combination of three different coffees, that by mixing them together in their right proportion I have now a blend of coffee that could not give better satisfaction—at any price, even if I would ask 50c per pound. Its the flavor, strength and amber color. However I will retain a low price. You will say, oh, that's every corner grocer's talk; they all say we have the best. Well seeing is believing, and tasting proves it all. I will guarantee that you can not duplicate this blend of coffee at from 5 to 10c per pound from the other fellow—and if you will try a sample pound and it does not prove as I say I will not charge you one cent for it. We give you all coffee—we can't afford to give any premiums or presents. If we did we would have to charge more for the coffee. A trial is all we ask and the price is only 30c PER POUND.

Use Buying Judgment

When you order meat for your table be careful to have just what you want selected. Some cuts of meat look well but have very little nutriment in them. Others possibly do not equal them in appearance but reach the high mark in food value. If you tell us what you want it is our pleasure to try and select for you meat that will come up to your requirements. Nothing can take the place of meat on the family table and it is no more costly than other eatables if good selections are made. We are ready to select steaks or roasts or boiling pieces for you and then to make prompt delivery.

THE WATER CONTRACT.

The election to decide whether or not the contract made between the city and the Jacksonville Water company shall be approved will be held Tuesday, Feb. 4. The city officials after consultation with their special attorney, J. A. Bellatti, decided that it would be the best thing for Jacksonville to enter into the proposed contract for a period of eighteen months. The terms of the contract are very liberal to the city; no rights or property are surrendered by the city; there is no partnership between the city and the company to result in any joint liability; if the contract becomes effective then all pending litigation stops. These facts all seem to point out that the people should approve the contract.

PLAN IN GARMENT WORKERS STRIKE

Material Progress Toward Settlement of the Strike is Made at Conference Held in New York.

New York, Jan. 23.—Men, said to be detectives in an automobile in Brooklyn tonight, drew revolvers when apparently they considered themselves in danger, and fired a number of shots. Joseph Milstein, a bystander was mortally wounded. The detectives then jumped from the machine and mingled with the crowd. The shooting precipitated furious fighting in which a dozen men were trampled on and injured. Reserves from two police stations dispersed the rioters.

New York, Jan. 23.—Several riots occurred when striking Garment Workers attempted to rescue young women pickets who were arrested for interfering with other women on their way to work. None was seriously hurt. The police made many arrests.

Material progress toward a settlement of the strike was made today at a conference between representatives of the manufacturers and strike leaders. Both sides practically approved the suggestion of the arbitration committee of the chamber of commerce for a compromise on the question of hours of labor and wages. These two questions were the stumbling blocks that resulted in previous conferences being discontinued.

Chicago Workers Claim Victory.

Chicago, Jan. 23.—Garment Workers tonight claimed a victory when the announcement was made that the National Wholesale Tailors' association would refuse to accept work from New York. The association is composed of makers of custom-tailored clothing.

The Ladies Tailors union, an organization separate from the Garment Workers, today issued a statement that they would go on strike if their employers accepted work from New York. Cloak makers have received assurance from their employers that no New York work will be taken.

SEEKS INFORMATION ABOUT OLD MORGAN COUNTY BOOK.

Col. Round of Manassas, Va., Wants Volume Written by Rev. Israel Wilkinson and Old Time Baptist Ministers.

George C. Round of Manassas, Va., has written the Journal in which he seeks some information about a book printed here years ago. In his letter he says: "In 1869 a book was printed in Jacksonville by Davis & Penniman, written by Rev. Israel Wilkinson, then a Baptist preacher in Jacksonville. It was a genealogy of 'The Wilkinson Family,' which originated in Rhode Island so far as America is concerned. I want to get a copy of that book and it seems to me that there must be some likelihood of finding one or more of the books in stores or libraries in Jacksonville. Possibly some descendants of Rev. Israel Wilkinson has one of the books. I would like to get one and am willing to pay a fair price for it."

George C. Round served for four years in the war of the rebellion, enlisting while a student at Wesleyan university, Middleton, Conn. He came out of the war a lieutenant. Subsequently he studied law and for more than forty years has been a useful and valued citizen of Manassas. Any reader of the Journal who can furnish Mr. Round the information desired should communicate with him direct or give the information to the Journal for transmission to him.

WANT NAMES AT ONCE.

The board of management of the Jacksonville Center of the Dramatic League of America will meet next Saturday afternoon and those who give their names to the local Center at that meeting and before Monday will have the same reported to the national association, and only those whose dues are paid by Monday will receive the first leaflet on bulletins to be sent out from the national headquarters. The names can be left and dues paid to the treasurer, Mrs. John R. Robertson, 1203 West State street, or at the Jacksonville National bank. A number whose names are not already on the secretary's list have expressed their desire to join when the movement was fairly inaugurated. Any such may telephone either the treasurer, Mrs. Robertson or the president, Mrs. David Reid.

ISSUE INTERSTATE PASSES.

Denver, Colo., Jan. 23.—Interstate passes are still being issued by the Rock Island 42 in Colorado and passes generally are issued by the Colorado roads to influence the routing of freight shipments, according to witnesses at today's hearings before the interstate commerce commissioner Harlan, on the matter of freight rates.

It was brought out that the Denver and Rio Grande has been accustomed to give transportation to Senator Simon Guggenheim of Colorado and Senator Reed Smoot of Utah and to lesser political personages. Twenty five witnesses, including Denver shippers, have been subpoenaed for tomorrow.

TESTIMONY ENDS IN COTTON HEARING

The Lincoln Memorial bill next Wednesday.

North Trans-Atlantic Trade.

A. S. Franklin, vice-president of the International Mercantile Marine company to day furnished the house shipping trust committee with practically all the information it desired concerning the North Trans-Atlantic Steamship trade. Mr. Franklin corroborated the testimony of other witnesses that the line in this trade operated under rate agreements, and in some instances pooling arrangements, and put into the record a copy of the agreement entered into by most of the lines controlled by his corporation.

Saying it would be impossible to maintain efficient trans-Atlantic service without agreements, Mr. Franklin asserted that the only way congress could improve the situation would be to require copies of the agreements to be filed and held open to the public. Any time to prescribe fixed rates, he insisted, would be ruinous on account of "tramp" competition with the regular lines and because such a practice would give foreigners an advantage over the American merchant and producer.

No General Public Reception.

As the result of a canvass of the senate to day, announcement was made that in all probability there would be no general public reception to President-elect Wilson following his inauguration. The delivery of the inaugural address and the review of the inaugural procession take time and it is feared that to follow these with a general reception would overtax the endurance of the fact that it would be impracticable to limit the attendance. It is estimated that from 50,000 to 100,000 people would be in the line of those who would want to shake hands with the new president. There also is apprehension as to the result upon the people themselves of getting together such a throng. The fact is recalled that when President Jackson undertook to give an inaugural reception the white house was so overrun and some of the people so disorderly that it became necessary to throw many out through the windows.

Many also will remember the scenes of disorder in connection with the lying in state in the capitol of the body of President McKinley when it was brought here on the way to Ohio.

The president-elect's friends in the senate feel satisfied that their decision will meet with his approval. They declared that if the house should adopt a resolution providing for a reception it would be killed in the senate.

Present Concentration Sufficient.

"The present concentration of financial resources in New York is sufficient to care for the business and commerce of the country."

Henry P. Davidson of J. P. Morgan & Co., said on the stand before the house money trust committee to day. The question of further concentration Mr. Davidson asserted, depended entirely upon the development of the business and commerce of the country.

Mr. Davidson went on record as favoring "combination and control of industries under government regulation, as opposed to unrestricted competition."

Samuel Untermyer, counsel for the committee and the witness engaged in a spirited tilt on the question of the conduct of banking affairs in European countries. Mr. Untermyer insisted that England, France and Germany prevent control of banks through interlocking directorates.

"Talk about concentration, why we haven't even started in this country, as compared with the European nations," was Mr. Davidson's reply to this statement.

Mr. Davidson said he saw no objection to a law forcing the publicity of bank assets "if the public thought it desirable," but he was opposed to any law that would force banks to make public lists of their stockholders.

The witness further said that he thought it was unfortunate for the people of the entire world that the courts interfered with the trusts "as they have done."

He declared that he believed a law forcing banks in reserve cities to be independent and forbidding combinations through interlocking directorates would "set us back fifteen years."

Would Exempt Farmers.

Exemption from the provision of the Sherman anti-trust act of combinations of farmers and laborers is proposed in an amendment to the anti-trust law introduced to day by Representative J. W. of Tennessee.

Augusta Van Biene Collapses During Performance at Brighton, Eng.

Brighton, England, Jan. 23.—Augusta Van Biene, the actor-musician, who toured for years in America and England in "The Broken Melody," died suddenly during a performance here tonight.

Van Biene was born in Holland in 1850 and appeared nearly 6,000 times in "The Broken Melody," which was produced in London for the first time in 1912. He was playing tonight in the sketch, "The Master Musician," and was conducting the orchestra.

By a tragic coincidence the actor had reached a point in the sketch where he was supposed to fall back in a chair overcome by hunger, when the actual collapse occurred. The audience left the theatre without knowing of the real tragedy.

YOUR HAT

May Be a Stylish One, But It Makes Trouble.

A man usually buys a hat that's "in style," but the modern hat for men has lots to answer for.

Baldheads are growing more numerous every day. Hats make excellent breeding places for the parasitic germs which sap the life from the roots of the hair.

When your hair begins to fall out and your scalp is full of Dandruff it is a sure sign that these countless germs are busily at work.

There is but one way to overcome the trouble and kill the germs—that way is to apply Newbro's Herpicide to the scalp—it will kill the germs and healthy hair is sure to result.

COURT OF APPEALS REVERSES DECISION

REVERSES DISTRICT COURT'S DECISION IN "BLEACHED FLOUR" CASE.

Lower Court Held That Electrical Bleaching Process Was Violation of Pure Food Law—Case Is Remanded For Re-trial.

St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 23.—The United States circuit court of appeals here today reversed the district court decision of the government against the Lexington Mill & Elevator company of Lexington, Nebraska in the "bleached flour" case. The lower court held that the electrical bleaching process was a violation of the pure food law, but the court of appeals remanded the case for re-trial.

Judge Smith McPherson of Kansas City, before whom the trial was conducted, charged the jury that if it found that the bleaching process added anything to the flour whether injurious or not, it should return a verdict in favor of the government. The higher court ruled that Judge McPherson erred in this instruction.

In the arguments before the court of appeals, the attorneys for the company said that a nitrate was added to flour in the bleaching process but contended that a man would have to eat about 15,000 loaves of bread before he would get an ordinary dose of the chemical. Attorneys said that the bleaching process was so valuable to the millers of the country that were its abandonment enforced the flour supply of the nation would be reduced greatly while the flour was bleaching naturally or the wheat thoroughly ripening.

MAY CRUISE TO SAN FRANCISCO

Quincy Whig:—That the tenth division, Illinois naval reserves, which consists of the organization here, may have a chance to be among the first sailors to pass through the isthmian waters after the canal is thrown open has been announced by naval officers to Capt. Evers, commanding officer of the entire reserve in Illinois. The fact that a great many naval reserves will be used in manning the big guns has been announced and as the Quincy division was in the grand review last fall in New York city, where it made such a creditable showing, there seems to be no reason why the Quincy boys will not be called again.

The plans now under consideration by the navy department are to steam the entire Atlantic fleet from New York and Philadelphia down the eastern coast to the entrance of the canal, through the canal and up the western coast to San Francisco. The navy department realizes that the cruise for the interior division will do much to add to the interest in the work which is now being done by the government to increase the efficiency of a reserve naval force.

There would of course be some trouble in many of the Quincy men leaving their work for that length of time, but as they would receive navy pay many of them would probably be willing to give up their present positions in order to get the benefit of the trip.

Melvin McEvers left this morning for Chicago for a week's visit with his sister, Mrs. K. V. Black.

JUMP INTO RIVER.

SWIM TO SHORE.

Columbus, Jan. 23.—Three girls today jumped from the fifth floor of a burning factory building into the Scioto river and swam to shore and safety. Firemen, policemen and on-lookers rushed to the bank of the river and helped rescue the three from the river, which because of the recent heavy rains is at flood height. Scores of girls are employed in the factory but all escaped unhurt.

NORTHMINSTER REVIVAL WILL CLOSE TONIGHT

Series of Protracted Meetings Under Leadership of Rev. W. A. Bodell of Bloomington Will be Concluded.

The Northminster revival, which has been in progress for three weeks, will close with tonight's service. The meetings have been under the leadership of Rev. W. A. Bodell, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Bloomington, and his sermons have been of a high order and while the meetings have not resulted in a large number of converts, yet the church has been greatly benefited and much good has been accomplished.

A spirit song service preceded the preaching last evening, a good audience being present. "Oh Happy Day" was sung effectively by Miss Caroline Smith and the choir was led by Rev. W. E. Spoons. Rev. Mr. Bodell preached from the text found in Isa. 28-17, "And hail shall sweep away their refuge of lies."

He spoke in part:

Along the banks of the river Jordan huge caves have been worn out in the ages that have passed. During the cold winter months the wild beasts of the wilderness take refuge in these caves, then in the spring of the year when the Jordan overflows its banks and the caves are flooded these beasts are driven forth over the desert or out into the wilderness howling in despair for want of refuge. From some such a scene the prophet must have taken this text, "And hail shall sweep away their refuge of lies and the floods shall overflow their hiding places."

Refuge implies shelter from danger, and what is the danger? It is the punishment of sin. Men very well know from their present doings that they will be brought to future reckoning. They may refuse to appear before the throne of grace, but some day they will be compelled before the throne of grace.

All men have some refuge or other in which they are hiding. But there is only one sure refuge, all others are false, and will be swept away. The only sure refuge is Christ. There is therefore now no judgment to them that are in Christ Jesus," said the apostle Paul. In Him we are safe. The judgment was pronounced on Him, and if we are in Him we are safe. "He tasted death for every man."

Out in Kansas where prairie fires break out, the flames travel at the rate of thirty or forty miles an hour, and leap to the height of fifteen or twenty feet. The fleetest foot cannot outspeed them. People away from home when they see them coming do not try to outrun them or fight them—they know they cannot. What then they do to escape their fury? They just take a hatch from their pocket with which they are always supplied and light the grass in front of them, and when quite a spot has been burned they just stand in that burned place so when the awful flames reach them they go around, they do not touch them for there is nothing there to burn. So judgment has been laid upon Christ on the cross, and if we are in Him we are safe, for in Christ there is nothing to be condemned.

"He that believeth on the Son," said He, "shall not come into condemnation but is passed from death into life." "Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law," said the apostle, "by being made a curse for us."

The women took up the movement today after hearing an address on police women by Mrs. Alice Wells. Mrs. Wells says that not only was the work noble enough for any woman, but that she wished to see the day when "you women here will desire to have your sons become members of the police force."

Not Spankable—A girl who does her hand up wears a hobble skirt and has acquired a title of "Miss" is too old to be spanked, according to a decision by Police Magistrate Thompson of Elgin. The young woman stayed out too long to suit her father, spanked her and she had him arrested.

Plucky Hospital Nurse—Miss Margaret Cunningham, the pretty night nurse of the Henrietta hospital, of East St. Louis, upon entering the hospital drug room saw a man's face pressed against the window glass. The nurse went into an adjacent room and securing a revolver opened a window and fired at the man. When the nurse fired at the man she says he dropped to the roof and then jumped to the ground and fled down the alley back of the hospital.

Asks Foolish Question—Perplexities which have arisen at the Elgin postoffice since the beginning of the parcels post were overshadowed when Postmaster Harry D. Hemmens received a letter from a woman asking what the rate would be to ship herself to Washington, D. C. The applicant was Mrs. Mary Phillips, who is nearly 60 years old.

Swell Mocker Foiled—A few minutes after Prof. E. D. Merrill, 1465 Hixman avenue, Evanston, had loaned $2 to a stranger who introduced himself as "Charlie Allen" of Mr. Merrill's home town, Forest Grove, Mont., the professor dropped into the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity house and found Mr. Allen, this time a native of Freeport, Ill., trying to work George Green, a Freeport student, for $5. He mentioned the extraordinary circumstances to four of the other students and Mr. Allen was escorted out of the house, minus his silk hat, cane and overcoat.

Commission Form Rejected—Champaign rejected the commission form of government for the second time by a vote of 874 to 773. The "wet" were actively opposed to the proposed change.

New Pastor For Decatur—Rev. Willard D. Stires of St. Peter, Minn., has accepted the call to the rectorate of St. John's Episcopal church in Decatur. The word came in a letter to E. B. Hitchcock, clerk of the vestry, Monday morning. Dr. Stires was in Decatur two weeks ago, at which time he made an extremely favorable impression. The call resulted. The new rector will be in Decatur on Feb. 4, and will conduct the services in St. John's on the first Sunday in Lent, in accordance with the desire of Bishop Edward W. Osborne of the diocese of Springfield.

Left a Fortune—"Geranium" Staffel, employed at Anna as a livery stable attendant and at any odd jobs that came his way, has learned that through the death of a wealthy relative in Dallas, Texas, he will receive property worth $200,000. Staffel's first name is George, although he was known here by the name of "Geranium."

MANY NEW MEMBERS TT SERVE IN CONGRESS

Changes Result of Re-apportionment and Political Upheaval.

Washington, Jan. 23.—The special session which is expected to begin soon after the inauguration of President Wilson will be an altogether new congress, the 63d., of whose members 184, 23 senators and 161 representatives, will be new to their places. The unusually large number of new representatives is the result partly of the reapportionment which created many new congressional districts. But the political overturn is responsible almost wholly for the great change in the personnel of the senate.

The new senators will take the places of others, many of them long and widely known. Such, for example, are Senators Joseph W. Bailey of Texas, Shelby M. Cullom of Illinois, W. Murray Crane of Massachusetts, Joseph M. Dixon of Montana, Frank O. Briggs of New Jersey, Norris Brown of Nebraska, Jonathan Bourne, Jr., of Oregon, and Murphy J. Foster of Louisiana.

The fact that an unusually large number of the states are sending to the senate men well qualified for the place by reason of their previous legislative experience in the lower house of congress is a subject of much favorable comment in Washington just now. A review of the list shows that a majority of the new men who will sit in the senate after March 4 have already served as representatives.

The toga of Senator Bailey of Texas, now worn temporarily by Col. R. M. Johnston, an appointee of the governor, will after March 4 fall upon the shoulders of Morris Shepard, who has been a representative in congress the past ten years and has been looked upon as one of the Bryanite leaders in that body.

Another prominent member of the lower house who will be seen in the senate is John W. Weeks, who has been named to succeed Senator Crane of Massachusetts. Mr. Weeks, though a comparatively young man, has represented the twelfth Massachusetts district since 1905. He is regarded as one of the best informed members of the house on military and naval matters.

Senator Foster of Louisiana will be succeeded by Joseph E. Ransdell, who has nearly ten years' service in the house to his credit. Mr. Ransdell is widely known as a factor in the movement for improved waterways. Since 1907 he has been president of the rivers and harbors congress.

Ollie M. James, who is to succeed Senator Paynter of Kentucky, has had ten years' experience in the lower house. Mr. James first became acquainted with the business of law-making at a very early age, when he served as a page in the Kentucky legislature.

Senator Norris Brown of Nebraska will be succeeded by George W. Norris, who for ten years has represented the fifth Nebraska district in congress. The new senator gained prominence as one of the original Republican "insurgents" in the house.

Another representative who will be seen in the senate after March 4 is William Hughes, the Democratic choice for the seat of Senator Briggs of New Jersey. Mr. Hughes has served four terms as the representative of the sixth New Jersey district.

Several of the states have not yet selected their senators. When the elections are complete it is possible that one or more additions will be made to the foregoing list of present representatives in congress who will be seen in the senate when the extra session convenes a few weeks hence to take up the work of tariff revision.

WEATHER NOT TO BLAME.

It's Your Condition.
This weather simply takes the life right out of me. I can hardly drag one foot after the other," said a run-down, tired-out woman, the other day.

We want to say to every such person in this vicinity. Don't blame the weather, it's your condition. You need a strengthening tonic and the very best we know is Vinol which is a combination of the two most world-famed tonics, namely, the medicinal, curative elements of cod liver oil and tonic iron, for the blood.

A case has just come to our attention from Vineland, N. J. Mrs. Allen T. Godfrey says: "I never fail to say a good word for Vinol, for it restored my strength and vigor after I had been in a badly run-down condition for several months. Every one who is broken in health ought to know that Vinol will build them up and make them strong."

Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you. Lee P. Allcott, druggist, Jacksonville, Ill.

KONRAD CASE BEFORE COUNTY COURT

The case of the People vs. John Konrad, alias Wabash and Charles Konrad, charged with selling liquor in anti-saloon territory, occupied most of the day in the county court. Testimony was heard and late in the afternoon the case was given to the jury. In instructing the jury Judge Brockhouse instructed the members to bring in a verdict of not guilty in the case of Charles Konrad as no evidence was introduced against him. The jury retired to consider their verdict for John Konrad and at 10 o'clock last night reached a verdict. It was sealed and will be read in court this morning by Judge Brockhouse.

A TRIBUTE TO OUR FRIEND.

Will Carleton, the poet! They call him that.

But thou hast been more to me For the hallow that crowns thy life work

Embodying immortality Shed radiance into my young life

As thine wert ebbing away— Bidding me high aspirations

And trivial things ally: To seek grandeur in God's creation,

Noble aims were thy parting words; The voice still rebounds at my heart

Though grim Death hath wielded his sword Mother earth has claimed the earthly

To garb thee with green turf, And the pangs that death awakened

And soothed by thy words of worth. Oh, friend! As thou bowed submission

And consigned thy body to earth Then thy soul entered sublimity

And kissed death as though in mirth Oh! in thy flight if thou could have made me Heir and joint heir to thy power, Methinks I could have borne more bravely The grief that occasioned death's hour

Could I have sat with thee in silence, And imbibed that wondrous grace

"Two would strengthen and upbraid me And the grimness of death erase,

May the earth mature and adorn thee And Heaven thy soul receive,

May the world reverse thy memory And through thee great deeds achieve.

—Written for William Frederick Reipschlag, Jr., 508 S. Webster avenue, city. In memory of the late Will Carleton, the poet.

NOTICE TAX PAYERS.

The tax books are now in the office of the collector and is a judgment against all parties named therein. Parties paying upon personal property only are requested to pay same promptly and avoid trouble and expense in collecting same.

Special attention is called to the following extract from the revenue law: "All real estate upon which taxes are unpaid on the 10th day of March annually shall be deemed delinquent and may be advertised any time after April 1st and shall bear interest after May 1st at the rate of one per cent per month until paid. Parts or fractions of a month will be recorded as a month. Bring your old tax receipt to save time and guard against error in description. If you intend paying same through a bank leave your old tax receipt with your respective bank or banker at once. Do not put it off. Do it now.

W. B. Rogers, Sheriff and ex-officio collector.

COMPANY STORE SYSTEM

UNDER FIRE.
Pittsburg, Pa., Jan. 23.—In both labor and industrial circles much interest is manifested in the hearing which will be begun tomorrow in the quo warranto proceedings started by Alexander P. Moore and others against the company store operated by the Jones & Laughlin Steel company. The action marks the beginning of a crusade for the abolition of the system of company stores operated generally by mills, mines and factories throughout Pennsylvania. The promoters of the movement to abolish the company stores declare that the system robs the workmen and keeps their families in poverty.

Fires In Jacksonville

Monday's Courier had the following:

ROOF CATCHES FIRE

"Saturday evening the roof of the residence of Newton Sargent at 350 West 9th street caught fire about 6:30 o'clock, burning a small hole. The fire department was called, but a Babcock extinguisher was used by a member of the department in putting out the fire."

Tuesday's Journal tells of a fire at 302 North East street, caused by a coal oil lamp, at which a woman was badly burned. The Journal says: "In the meanwhile the fire department was called and extinguished the fire with the chemical."

Only lack of information prevents EVERY HOME having its own Babcock. The cost is small; anybody can use it; it is always ready. There is nothing secret about it, and if you call at our office, 110 South West street, we will be glad to explain it to you fully.

Bowels Get Weak As Age Advances

The First Necessity is to Keep the Bowels Gently Open With a Mild Laxative Tonic.

Healthy old age is so absolutely dependent upon the condition of the bowels that great care should be taken to see that they act regularly. The fact is that as age advances the stomach muscles become weak and inactive and the liver does not store up the juices that are necessary to prompt digestion.

Some help can be obtained by eating easily digested foods and by plenty of exercise, but this latter is irksome to most elderly people. One thing is certain, that a state of constipation should always be avoided as it is dangerous to life and health. The best plan is to take a mild laxative as often as is deemed necessary. But with equal certainty it is suggested that cathartics, purgatives, physics, salts and pills be avoided, as they do but temporary good and are so harsh as to be a shock to a delicate system.

A much better plan, and one that thousands of elderly people are following, is to take a gentle laxative tonic like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which acts as nearly like nature as is possible. In fact, the tendency of this remedy is to strengthen the stomach and bowel muscles and so train them to act naturally again, when medicines of all kinds can usually be dispensed with. This is the opinion of many people of different ages, among them Mr. O. P. Miller, Baroda, Mich., who writes: "I am 80 years old and have been constipated for many years. Since receiving your sample bottle and finding that it is the best remedy I ever used and does just what you claim for it to the very letter, I can not recommend it too highly."

A bottle can be bought of any druggist at fifty cents or one dollar. People usually buy the fifty cent size first, and then, having convinced themselves of its merits they buy the dollar size, which is more economical. Results are always guaranteed or money will be refunded. Any elderly person can follow these suggestions with safety and the assurance of good results. If no member of your family has ever used Syrup Pepsin, and you would like to make a personal trial of it before buying it in the regular way of a druggist, send your address—a postal will do—to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 417 Washington St., Monmouth, Ill., and a free sample bottle will be mailed you.

MR. O. P. MILLER.

STEEL WEAKNESS MARKET FEATURE

PRESSURE WAS DIRECTED
STEADILY AGAINST STEEL

The Loss on This Stock Was Principal Factor in the Unsettling of the Whole List—Spirited Rally
Late in Day.

(By Associated Press.)

New York, Jan. 23.—Weakness of steel stocks was the conspicuous feature of today's stock market. Pressure was directed steadily against this stock, and its loss of more than 2 points was perhaps the principal factor in the unsettling of the whole list. The strength exhibited on the previous two days vanished and material inroads were made on the recently established gains.

The selling converged on steel,
Reading and the Harriman stocks and standard investment issues and specialties sold down with the speculative leaders. A spirited rally late in the day lifted prices considerably above the low point.

Pressure against steel was associated with the revelations made in the government's dissolution suit, particularly the admission of a former president concerning an international rail pool.

Harriman shares were depressed by intimations of serious obstacles in the way of carrying out the dissolution decree.

The weakness of the general market seemed to radiate from these issues, the technical position of the market having been weakened by extensive short covering on the previous two days.

Offering of $15,000,000 convertible 4 1/2 per cent St. Paul bonds caused a break in both the steel and bonds. The stock broke 1 1/2 and the outstanding 4 1/2 two points.

The highest point of woman's happiness is reached only through motherhood, in the clasping of her child within her arms. Yet the mother-to-be is often fearful of nature's ordeal and shrinks from the suffering incident to its consummation. But for nature's ills and discomforts nature provides remedies, and in Mother's Friend is to be found a medicine of great value to every expectant mother. It is an emulsion for external application, composed of ingredients which act with beneficial and soothing effect on those portions of the system involved. It is intended to prepare the system for the crisis, and thus relieve, in great part, the suffering through which the mother usually passes. The regular use of Mother's Friend will repay any mother in the comfort it affords before, and the helpful restoration to health and strength it brings about after baby comes. Mother's Friend is for sale at drug stores. Write for our free book for expectant mothers which contains much valuable information, and many suggestions of a helpful nature.

ECONOMICAL BEEF PRODUCTION

The Superiority of Alfalfa Over Concentrated Food Stuffs in Beef Production Clearly Established.

The Nebraska Agricultural Experiment Station has just issued a report of a series of experiments in feeding beef cattle. The report gives the results of four experiments in which comparisons are made of different rations suitable for the economical production of beef, and, briefly, the general conclusions are as follows:

In comparing bran, linseed-meal, and cold pressed cottonseed-cake, each as a source of protein supplementing corn-meal and silage, the cold pressed cake proved to be worth 50 per cent more per ton than wheat bran, and linseed-meal 18 per cent more per ton than cold pressed cottonseed-cake.

In the use of each of these supplementary protein feeds with corn-meal and prairie hay, the cold pressed cottonseed-cake showed a value per ton 22 per cent greater than wheat bran, and the linseed-meal 28 per cent more than cottonseed-cake.

Largest Gains From Alfalfa.

Where Alfalfa was used in connection with corn meal and silage, or corn-meal and prairie hay, large gains were made without the use of concentrated protein food. The gains in both experiments where alfalfa was fed were larger, less costly and much more profitable.

These experiments supplementing what had previously been found, show that beef can be produced at a lower cost and with greater profit on a combination of the corn plant and alfalfa hay than any other combination of foods. (Nebraska Agr. Exp. Station Bul. No. 132.)

All who know alfalfa best esteem it as one of the richest acquisitions to American agriculture, and in Illinois condition seem naturally adopted to its most abundant economical production. H. A. McKee, Secretary, Illinois Farmers' Institute.

A New County Soil Report.

The Illinois Experiment Station has just published the fourth in the series of County Soil Reports. It contains full information in regard to the soils of Sangamon county. The large maps show the location and boundary lines of every type of soil in the county, even down to areas of a few acres. In addition the report contains a table showing fertility in the soil of Sangamon county, gives results of field experiments at Auburn, at Virginia, Cass county; at Urbana, Champaign county; at Sibley, Ford county, and at Bloomington, McLean county, and much other information besides the usual appendix in regard to soil survey methods and crop requirements. This report of forty pages bears the names as authors, of Professor Hopkins, Messier, Pettit and Reckhimer.

Prize Winning Steers.

Stockmen will be interested in learning that Mr. J. F. Prather, of Williamson, Ill., has kindly consented to loan his prize winning Short-horn steers, including the International Champion, to the university for use during the Corn Growers' and Stockmen's convention. These steers, together with specimens from the university herd, will make the equipment for the cattle judging demonstrations the best the university has had for use at these annual meetings in recent years.

PLAIN WORDS.

This is the way Principal Fulwider of Freeport and formerly of this city talks, says the Freeport Journal: Principal Fulwider spoke to the high school students this morning in regard to the Rockford basketball game Friday night. He said that the faculty emphatically opposed students going to Rockford to see the game. Students have expense enough and parents should not permit them to make the trip. No teacher will be permitted to chaperone a student, and if students go they must go on parents' responsibility. It is especially objectionable for girls to make the trip and mothers who permit their daughters to go galavanting around the country on trolley cars till midnight deserve public reprimand. The presence of any girl on such a trip places her under suspicion at once, and lists her mother as one who is indifferent to her daughter's reputation.

He said: "I want parents to understand that the high school does not desire students to attend the game. We oppose it, and will assume no responsibility for their care or conduct. Besides, instead of being a help, they will be a disadvantage to our team."

"Rockford parents never permit their children, especially girls, to troop around till midnight, to Freeport when Rockford plays here. They are to be commended for their good sense."

"THE CHOCOLATE SOLDIER."

The phenomenal popularity of "The Chocolate Soldier" is due to the fact that it is a radical contrast to the musical productions so common on our stage, in which a hundred other defects of libretto and score. It is a pure and rare specimen of comic opera, and perfectly balanced combination of dramatic scenes, in which comedy, satire and romance are wittily blended, and superb songs, waltzes and marches, each typifying some passing mood of the action and each a genuine bit of melody. Bernard Shaw's wittiest romantic satire, "Arms and the Man," is the dramatic source of the opera, to which Oscar Straus has added the finest product of his musical genius in a score that amazes critics and playgoers of all degrees.

"The Chocolate Soldier" will appear at the Grand on Tuesday, January 28th.

FOR GETTYSBURG REUNION.

Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 23.—Commissioners appointed by the governors of a number of states are attending a conference which was begun here today to discuss final plans for the celebration next summer of the 50th anniversary of the battle of Gettysburg. Both the Grand Army and the United Confederate Veterans are officially represented at the conference.

EIGHTY FOUR LONG YEARS AGO IN JACKSONVILLE

Names Familiar to Old Citizens and Others Given in Article Contributed to Journal in 1876.

In the weekly Journal in September of 1876 an article was published giving reminiscences of Jacksonville and Morgan county from 1828 to 1876. The article was contributed by a subscriber who did not give his name. The heading was "The Long Ago" and mention was made of the fact that the reminiscences, dated from a time 48 years before. It is thirty-six years since the article appeared and so today the story runs back for eighty-four years. There are some facts and many names which will be of interest to some readers who take a glance backward through the eyes of the contributor of 1876. The article follows:

One of the old settlers of the county sends us the following:

The world moves on,
The years roll slowly by;
Youth comes of age,
The aged droop and die.

New faces crowd the ever bustling scene,
And tells to me what I have been My old friends are wrinkled, bald and grey,
And I, advancing grow old as they.

Yet here my thoughts backward flow to memories of forty-eight years ago. Ah, oft when busy recollections plays 'mid by gone scenes, what fancies arise familiar to the call, what memories all my faculties enthrall. What visions of the inhabitants of Jacksonville forty-eight years. Where are they now? Why some have risen high, aiming their arrows even at the sky. Some have been wayward and gone astray, some hold the even tenor of their way. Some are recording an immortal name, with golden letters on the scroll of fame. Many have departed hence, and some remain of forty-eight years since.

I will give the names of all the heads of families, and the young men that were there living and doing for themselves in the then town of Jacksonville. In giving names and business followed by each family and person; I may not be able to give all their names correctly, but their surnames I can, I hope some citizen now living may recall their names and give a more correct list: Dennis Rockwell, circuit clerk and county clerk.

Advice To the Lovelorn

Appearing In Each Issue Of The Chicago Sunday Tribune.

I have devoted my life to helping those whose hearts have been wounded by Cupid's arrows. I am a specialist in giving aid and advice to those whose heart problems need smoothing out so that the course of true love may lead to happiness. In every mail I receive wedding invitations from those who have accepted my aid, which testify that the secrets of the heart are to me as an open book. My Tribune readers write me more than 600 confidential letters a week, which, when accompanied by a stamped envelope, receive my personal attention; otherwise I answer through the columns of my department. Your love difficulties are a simple problem to me, so write me today. I want to help you. I have a page in The Chicago Tribune's Sunday issue of January 26th. My subject will be

A Six Hundred Page Magazine for 5c

If the contents of a single copy of The Chicago Sunday Tribune were resolved into standard magazine proportions, it would make a budget of over 600 pages. But no ten magazines ever dreamed of having so many star writers as appear in every issue of The Sunday Tribune.

Dresses You Wear 100 Years—The husbands will be keenly interested in this article. It's a fact.

Dear! Dear! What a Change Has Come Over the Kaiser—The German Emperor used to be susceptible to the eternal feminine, but now flees from even the beauties.

BROKE THE PLATE GLASS.

Yesterday morning as Fletcher Hopper was opening the heavy plate glass door leading to the stairway to the second story of the Hopper building he found the wet weather has caused the frame of the door to swell and by some unfortunate and strenuous effort to open it he caused the glass to leave its place and fall to the sidewalk in a number of pieces. It was a singular incident as the glass is very heavy plate.

MORTUARY

Cooley.
Squire Cooley died recently at the home of his son, Thomas Cooley, east of Manchester, a 41 1/2 years. Mr. Cooley was born in the state of Kentucky, coming to Illinois when he was 26 years old. He was united in marriage to Miss Jane Dikis, Sept. 13, 1888. To this union was born twelve children, six of whom are still living. His wife departed this life Dec. 22, 1900, in Virden, Ill., where they had lived for several years prior to her death. Afterward he came to make his home with his son, Thomas, near Manchester. Two daughters, four sons and many friends mourn his loss.

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Jones were conducted Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Mt. Emory church in charge of Rev. J. W. Muse, assisted by the pastor of the church, Rev. Mr. Russell. The services were attended by a large number of friends and the flowers were in charge of Mrs. Muse and Mrs. Blue.

Interment was made in the Jacksonville cemetery and the bearers were: James Scott, Anderson Mosle, William Jones, Jupiter Morgan, Reuben Hyatt and Henry Tandy.

Owen.
Funeral services for Mrs. W. B. Owen were conducted Thursday morning at 10 o'clock from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Clyde Martin, 239 Caldwell street, in the presence of a large gathering of relatives and friends. The services were impressively conducted by Dr. A. B. Morey, assisted by Rev. L. H. Davis, pastor of Westminster Presbyterian church. Miss Mabel Matthews, accompanied by Miss Ruth Widenham sang two solos, "Some Day We'll Understand" and "O Dry Those Tears", and the flowers, which were many and beautiful were cared for by Mrs. Jessie Johnson, Mrs. F. J. Waddell, Mrs. Thomas Worthington and Mrs. J. H. Rayhill, Jr.

Graves.
Mrs. Nancy Graves died Thursday morning at 5:25 o'clock at her residence, 427 South Sandy street after an illness with pneumonia.

Graves.
Mrs. Graves, whose maiden name was Nancy Wilburn, was born in Virginia and at the time of her death was 75 years of age. She was married in Prairieville, Mo., to Louis Graves, who preceded her in death in June 1911. She is survived by the following children: Mrs. Eliza Douglas of Clarksville, Mo., Mrs. Mattie Jackson of this city, Mrs. Rebecca Null of St. Louis and Mrs. Nina Cropp of Quincy, also by ten grand children and four great grandchildren. The deceased had been a resident of Illinois for more than seven years and was a member of the Methodist church.

Remains will be taken to Clarksville, Mo., this morning at 9:40 o'clock via the Chicago & Alton and funeral services will be held at the Methodist church at that place Saturday afternoon in charge of Rev. Mr. Todd. Interment will be made in the Clarksville cemetery.

Gilchrist.
Mrs. Charlotte Elizabeth Gilchrist, died Thursday morning at 10:45 o'clock at the home of her sister, Mrs. R. S. Nelson, 911 West College avenue, after a lingering illness. Mrs. Gilchrist is also survived by one brother, Brig. Gen. W. A. Jones of the United States army. The remains will be taken to Carrollton for burial and funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Safe to the land! Safe to the land! "The end is this; And now with Him go hand in hand, 'Far into bliss.'"

Bayless.
The funeral services of Mrs. Melissa Bayless were conducted at 10:30 o'clock Thursday morning from the family residence, four and one-half miles northwest of Concord, in charge of Rev. Joseph Camp, of Eureka, Ill. There was a large attendance as Mrs. Bayless was a woman highly regarded in the community.

Music was furnished by Mrs. Ashford Ator, Miss Eva Abernathy, Earl and Rollie Abernathy with Mrs. F. M. Roberts of Chapin as organist. The flowers were man and beautiful, kindly cared for by Mrs. Charles Bayless, Mrs. George Deterding, Miss Adelia Bayless and Mrs. R. Cox, all granddaughters of the deceased. The remains were laid to rest in the the Concord cemetery and the bearers were Henry Williamson, J. B. Ratcliff, William C. Brockhouse, Henry Aufdenkamp and Sylvester Kahn.

Obituary.
Mrs. Melissa J. Bayless was born May 3, 1836, and died at her home, four and one-half miles northwest of Concord, Jan. 20, 1913. Her maiden name was Green, daughter of William and Katherine Green. There were nine children in the family, which has always resided in the Concord community. She was married March 10, 1853, to J. E. Bayless, who died Aug. 11, 1898. Mrs. Bayless was a woman of sweet disposition and of kind heart and interested in every department of church work, being a member of the Concord Christian church.

The deceased is survived by two daughters, Mrs. William Deterding and Mrs. Arthur Ham, and one son, L. F. Bayless of Concord; two sisters, Mrs. J. W. Ratcliff of Ashland and Mrs. Daniel Mason of Fairfield, Ia., and one brother, William Green of Arenzville. Three children preceded the mother in death, Marcus D., Chalmers and an infant daughter. She also leaves eleven grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

Hunter.
B. F. Cassell received a telegram Thursday from Frank Hunter in Los Angeles, Cal., bringing the news of the death of his mother. No particulars were given.

Masterston.
The funeral services of William Masterston were conducted from the family residence in Bluffs Wednesday in charge of Rev. Scott Peak and interment was made in the McCaleb cemetery.

Mr. Masterston was born in Morgan county, just east of Mercedosa, Dec. 14, 1837 and has resided in this community all his life. He married Miss Sarah Emily Orr, August 2, 1870. They were the parents of four children, Robbie W., Orville, William and one daughter, Caroline, who died in her girlhood. The deceased served through the Civil War being a member of Company E 1st regiment of Indiana Heavy Artillery. He had resided in Bluffs since 1887 and was Justice of the Peace and Police Magistrate there for a great many years.

Rains Retard Fall.
Washington, Jan. 23.—According to reports to the weather bureau tonight, heavy rains of the last 24-hours in the Ohio valley will retard the fall of the river between Evansville and Cairo, and may cause a slight rise in the Evansville district.

PRESIDENT-ELECT WILSON WILL VISIT PANAMA CANAL

Will Make Trip Immediately After Extra Session of Congress Adjourns.

Trenton, N. J., Jan. 23.—President-elect Wilson intends to visit the Panama canal immediately after the extra session of congress adjourns. He told a delegation from Asheville, N. C., who came today to offer him a summer home there, that he was not making plans for next summer because he hoped to spend a part of it in the canal zone, and could not guess at how long congress would be in session. Later the governor conferred with national Committeeman Josephus Daniels, who frequently has been mentioned for a cabinet port folio, concerning the situation in states now deadlocked over the election of United States senators. National Chairman W. F. McCombs also took up the senatorial situation in various states with the governor.

The visit of Representative William Kent of California attracted attention because Mr. Kent is the first Progressive Republican to confer with the president-elect. No details of any of the conferences were given out.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

Yesterday the ladies of the Hospital Aid society and Mrs. E. A. Olds and Mrs. Frank Vickery planned a very delightful surprise for Mrs. Hattie Doying, one of the most faithful members of the organization.

In the first place Mrs. Doying was invited to dinner with Miss Elizabeth Sanderson and much enjoyed the event with an esteemed friend, and then proceeded to the hospital to participate in the usual program of the aid society but on arriving she found the ladies had different plans for her. She was reminded that it was the occasion of her 50th birthday and the friends who held her in such high esteem proposed to celebrate the event in a fitting manner which they did. A number of valued and useful presents to Mrs. Doying added not a little to the pleasure of the occasion and all passed off in a successful manner and the good lady went home with the satisfaction of knowing her long and faithful attention to the duties as member of the society are appreciated.

Mrs. James McFillen entertained a company of friends at dinner at her home in Litterberry Thursday. An excellent menu was served and the afternoon was very pleasantly spent socially. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Crum, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Crum, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Lister, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lister and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Murry.

Mrs. Charles E. Scott entertained a limited company of friends at bridge at her home on Westminster street Thursday afternoon. Honors were awarded to Mrs. J. Thompson Sharpe and Mrs. Lee P. Allcott and the afternoon proved a most delightful one. During the hours substantial refreshments were served.

The January birthday social of the ladies of Westminster church was held Thursday afternoon at the home of Miss Anna Stevenson on West College avenue, with a large attendance. The hostesses were Mrs. Charles H. Rammelkamp, Mrs. J. Marshall Miller, Mrs. Ensley Moore, Mrs. Julia Reaugh and Miss Anna Stevenson. The afternoon was very pleasantly spent in a social manner and refreshments were served.

Misses Marguerite and Marie Mayer gave a china rush Thursday night at their home on West North street with Miss Ila May Harshaw as the guest of honor. A bird contest was one of the features of the occasion and the honors were won by Mrs. Frank Moxon. Each guest was required to write a letter to the bride and these are to be opened at a future date. The numerous gifts of china were hidden in various places throughout the rooms at the disposal of the guests and on each package was written the name of some city in China. As Miss Harshaw found each package she read off name of the city and these names provoked discussion which made up a veritable trip through the celestial empire. Refreshments of a pleasing kind were served and the whole occasion was one of very great pleasure. Miss Harshaw is to wed Mr. John Alexander before the month of January passes.

In referring yesterday to the luncheon at which the engagement of Miss Emeline Brown to Mr. George Orear was announced, Mr. Orear was, through error, mentioned as the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Orear. The fact is, however, that this very popular young groom-to-be is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Orear.

The members of the Alpha Gamma Theta literary society of the High school held an indoor luncheon at the high school Thursday evening at 7 o'clock. Principal Gore, Prof. Bate and Miss Melick were the chaperons. Dancing was enjoyed and various games played and a good time in general had. A flash light picture of the thirty members of the society was taken by Prof. Cook.

CONFEDERATE VETERANS WOULD THEIR UNIFORMS AT CELEBRATION

Representatives of Southern States Make Plea For Old Soldiers of the South For Meeting Next July.

Philadelphia, Jan. 23.—A plea that confederate veterans be permitted to wear their old uniforms at the fifth anniversary celebration of the Battle of Gettysburg next July was made tonight by representatives of southern states at a session of the conference here with members of the state and congressional commissions having the affair in charge. It was stated that the various camps of confederate veterans are overwhelmingly in favor of wearing their uniforms at the celebration.

No decision was reached on this point. Representatives of 21 states are in conference here with the members of the two commissions arranging for the details of the celebration in which 40,000 union and confederate veterans are expected to participate.

REMAINS IN WORKSHOP.

New York, Jan. 23.—Thomas A. Edison, remained at work over a new invention in his laboratory at Englewood, N. J., tonight instead of coming here to receive from the American Museum of Safety a medal in honor of an old invention. Mrs. Edison, who came to accept the honor for him, explained that the inventor had been in seclusion in his workshop for two months, sleeping there and having his meals sent to him and expects to continue in retirement until he completes his invention.

The medal is the Rathfaun honor for an invention of a storage battery device which permits light without heat in places where explosives are handled and gases generated, reducing to a minimum danger to life and limb.

SEEKS FACTS ABOUT SOME REVOLUTIONARY SOLDIERS

Miss Olivia Dunlap Wants to Know About Deaths and Burial Places of Certain Men Who Helped Fight For Colonies.

Miss Olivia Dunlap, acting in conjunction with others of the D. A. R., is seeking to secure facts about certain revolutionary soldiers in order that the D. A. R. may take steps to have their graves marked and other suitable recognition given them. Miss Dunlap desires dates as to the death and places of burial of the following:
